REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

References Hasegawa et al (US 2005/0237954), Barsoum et al (6,442,173), Vanderpool, II et al (5,398,263), and Smith (4,550,292) are cited because they are pertinent to the method and apparatus for processing packets. However, none of the cited references teaches or suggests, in combination, the process of acquiring, transmitting and reconstructing data signals comprising the arrangements of the method steps of monitoring a timing reference signal and a sample interval; sampling the input data signal; and especially, measuring an input rate, based on a number of samples received during a sample interval, a duration count, based on a number of cycles of the timing reference signal between a first sample and a last sample received during the sample interval, and a delay count, based on a number of cycles of the timing reference signal received between a start of the sample interval and a first sample clock cycle of the one of the external sample clock and the internal sample clock; creating data packets, based on sampled input data and the measured input rate, and the measured delay count for each sample interval as recited in claims 1 and 6 and some variations of the steps as recited in claims 11 and 15 and further limitations of their respective dependent claims 2-5, 7-10, 12-14, and 16-18.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
